

COVID-19 Impact | Internet Accessibility in India

Even as we witness a digital shift, people across the country lack access to the Internet

66.67%

Of Internet users in India are between the age group 12 to 29 years.

[Source: IAMAI]

21.3%

Students of Govt. schools have access to computers

[Source: ASER Study]

4.4%

Of rural households have computers.

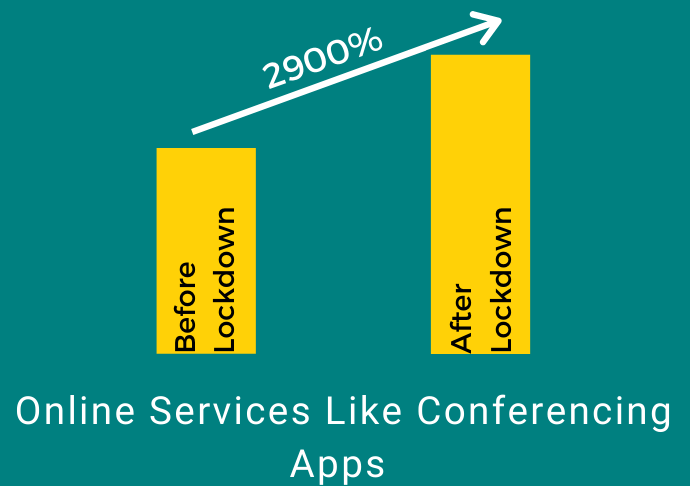

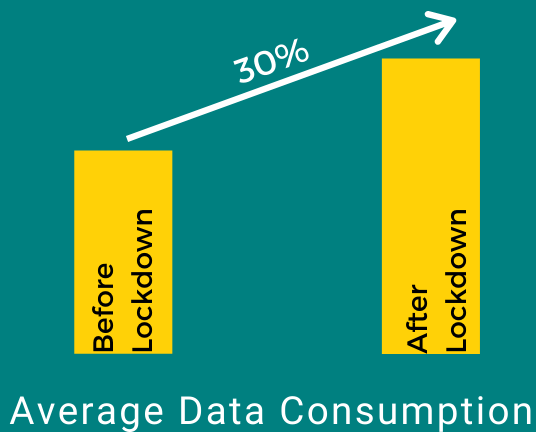

[Source: World Economic Forum report]

33%

Of women have access to internet compared to men (67%) with rural areas experiencing more disparity (28-72)

[Source: IAMAI]

Impact Of Lockdown On Data Consumption And Online Services

Source: Cellular Operators Association of India

Access To Internet

For every person who has access to the internet, there exists one who lacks access to the internet.

Source: Telecom Regulatory Authority of India